Washington, March 16 h.—In to-day's session of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, the question came up, on the motion by Mr. Phelps to postpone considerathe suggestions in the President's mesage, that legislation would be required to ettle the complications with the Chinese vernment growing out of the destruction of the lives and property of Chinese sub-jects. A long discussion ensued, in which all of the members of the commit-

Belliont and Wortning ton—succeeded in carrying their point. It was urged that it would be illogical to eclasider and report the Morrow bill, which ooked only to an infraction of treaty obligations, when the committee would be called upon afterwards to consider Heney's bill, which proposes the abrogation of the treaty in its entirety. The Republicans also speak in the interest of Secretary Bayard's diplomacy, which Mr. Phelps said the Democrats seemed rather to ignore or despise. ## "THE JOINT OF THE DIFFICULTY."

The following paragraph opens an editorial in the San Francisco Chronicle of

It is odd that in all the interminable dis-courses one hears about the Chinese evil no one seems to have the sense to put his finger on the joint of the difficulty. We complain that we are overrun by Chinese in spite of the exclusion treaty, and we find fault with the Chinese Gov-errment accordingly. In fact (thin by bline) treaty, and we find fault with the Chinese Government accordingly. In fact, China has lived up to her treaty. She sends us no emigrants. Not a score of Chinamen come here in a year from China. They all come from the British colony of Hongkong, just as in former days the coolies who went to Cuba came from the Portuguese colony of Macao. And now, by way of rubbing it in, the British colony of Canada compels railway companies in the Dominion to dump their Chinese passengers in the United States under penalty of $50 fine. Why do we not address our complaints to the real wrong-doer—the British Government?

The Chronicle confesses lack of observaion. In 1877 the Senate of California appointed a Commission with Hon. Creed Haymond at its head, to examine thoroughly into the Chinese question, and report remedies. That Commission took a great deal of testimeny, and made an elaborate report. A copy of the report, as adopted by the Senate. was mailed to every member of Congress, to all foreign Ministers, to the members of the Cabinet, to every Governor and all Legislatures in the United States; to every public library, to all commercial bodies, Mayors of cities, all Judges of District and Circuit Courts; to every editor of a newspaper, secular and religious; and to many others. In that report the Commission dwelt forcibly and with especial emphasis upon the fact that neither the month or two before returning East. emphasis upon the fact that neither the partial nor the total abrogation of the Burlingame treaty would give the relief desired; that the mass of Chinese immigration came from the British port of Hongkong, and that the right thing to do was to hold a convention with Great Britain, with a view of correcting the evil.

urers and local dealers, our busine are beginning to look upon the old high rates as an important form of protection to home industries, and think that whether a 2,500 tariff is paid to the Government against the cheap labor of Europe or a tariff to the railroads against cheap labor of the East, the effect is much the same. The anti-monopolist finds his occupation all but gone in these days of low cuts. Then our business men remember that it was the opposition of Mr. Henley and his following that prevented and still prevents the continuation of the California and Oregon Railroad, whose northern end is lost in some of the tunnels on the upper Sacra election took place yesterday, and 1,294 mento. The Northern Pacific meanwhile votes were polled. A mixed ticket was elected. City Trustees, four Republicans and Eastern men stole our trade, which, right, but the times on this coast do not favor him in his efforts.

THE MARYSVILLE ELECTION. - At th y election in Marysville, Monday, the total vote cast was 796-an excess of 109 over the city election of 1884, and 20 in excess of that of 1882. F. H. Greely, Republican candidate for Mayor, was elected over Dr. C. E. Stone by 18 majority. J. A. Maben, Republican candidate for Marshal, was on both tickets, having been indorsed by the Democratic Convention. His total vote was 775. G. W. Pine, Republican them. #### LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Funeral of Ex-Governor Irwin. The remains of the late ex-Governor Wm. Irwin arrived from San Francisco last evening, and the funeral will take place at 11 A. M. to-day from the residence of Mrs. W. B. C. Brown, No. 1100 H street. At San Francisco yesterday afternoon the funeral took place at 2 o'clock from the Unitarian Church, on Geary street, between Dupont and Kearny. The seats in the church were nearly all occupied by friends of deceased including a large number of ladies. The Secretary of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners, and some eighty employes of the Commissioners, attended in a body. The floral pieces were very beautiful, the more conspicuous being a full-rigged ship of large dimensions, a pillow inscribed "Fides," and a column supporting an anchor. Mrs. Henry Norton sang in excellent voice "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth," accompanied by L. Schmitt on the organ. Rev. Horatio Stebbins read from the Ser tures and offered a fervent prayer. The casket was conveyed to the Oakland ferry, without any formal procession, en route for Sacramento. A number of social and political friends of the deceased accompanied the remains to this city. The pall-bearers were: Ex-Governor George C. Perkins, Mayor Washington Bartlett, Collector of the Port John S. Heger W. F. Cod. the Port John S. Hagar, Wm. F. Goad, Robert Watt, Judge A. M. Later in the school year the classes of the High School will be examined by a Commission of the University faculty. From the foreshadowing referred en it may be inferred that the school will stand very favorably with the examiners. It ought to stimulate the High School pupils to renewed exertions, and especially to hard study in those branches where they

POINTS RAISED AS TO STATE AND FEDERAL JURISDICTION.

Dispatches from United States Officials-Both Sides of the Case

-Hearing To-day. The case of the nineteen citizens of the little town of Nicolaus, charged with having violated the laws of the United States in having driven the Chinese from their town, came up for hearing before United States Commissioner B. N. Bugbey, at his office in this city at 10 A. M. yesterday. The office of the Commissioner is in a room on the second floor of the Mike Bryte buildof 100, filled the hall and stairway and the sidewalk in front of the building. The defendants were represented by Grove L. Johnson and A. L. Hart, and the Gov-ernment by A. C. Hinkson.

romeson and A. C. Hinkson.

Counsel for defendants had applied to the United States Circuit Court at San Francisco for a writ of habeas corpus, which came up before the Court at 11 o'clock yesterday. Their grounds for the issuance of the writ are said to be that Congress has no power to provide against each other, when those offenses are committed within the jurisdiction of the State, but that, under recent amendments to the Constitution, conferring additional jurisdiction upon the Government of the United States, the power of Congress is confined to the correction of State legislation and State action. All matters involving the conduct of citizens in their intercourse conduct of citizens in their intercourse ticle VI. of the Burlingame treaty, which with each other are subject alone to regulation by the States, and are proper matters only for exercise of the police powers of the States. For these reasons the section of the civil rights bill under which the defendants are arrested is unconstitutional. General Hart read the following dispatch

Commissioner Bugbey stated that he had received a telegram from Judge Sawyer, and expected instructions from him by the ening mail. If he received an order from Judge Sawyer in the evening ordering the case dismissed, the defendants would be immediately released from custody. He ntinued the case until 10 A. M. to-day. AN EMINENT JURIST'S OPINION. Mr. Hinkson, in support of his opinion, said: "Judge Deady, in the case of Baker vs. the city of Portland, Or., which was brought to enjoin the city from enforcing tentior an Act of the Legislature to prohibit the the employment of Chinese laborers on the improvement of streets and public works in the State, said, in speaking of the Bur-lingame treaty: 'Until this treaty is abrogated or modified by the political de-partment of the Government, it is the suoreme law of the land, and the Courts are cound to enforce it fully and fairly. President Board of City Trustees. Immediately upon the receipt of the above Justice Henley invited Auditor Mc-Kee to his office and presented him with a due from the parents of the boys to them copy of the following receipt, convincing Mr. McKee that he had been in error, and that the Justice had made his report in accordance with law :

Concert.

Mrs. Addie Carter's concert last evening was largely attended. The programme was long and varied. Mrs. Carter, in excellent voice and in her usually strong, sympathetic style, sang "Bright Star Above," with flute obligate by J. E. Terry; a duet, "The Disconsolate," with Mr. Sanborn, tenor, and in a quarfet, "The Spring Song," with Mrs. Renfro and Misses Tietjens and Andrews. Fred Weil played a clarionet solo with good taste and effect and J. E. Terry was so happy in a flutsolo as to secure an encore. William E Beardslee sang the bass solo, "The Wanderer," with feeling and in excellent voice Messrs. Sanborn, Buchanan, Auerback Wright, Sanborn and Dennison were the accompanists of the evening. The programme was made notable by the debut in concert of Miss Mary Tietjens, daughter of Peter Tietjens, of this city, and niece to the world-famous soprano, Mme. Tietjens. The young lady sang twice, giving "Polo-naisse, from Mignon" and "Ave Maria," and was encored and responded. She has a strong voice, clear and musical on the upper notes, and of broad register, but metallic and faulty on the lower notes matters that culture may correct. She has confidence, and her voice is of good quallove for music, has all on her side, if there is coupled with it perseverance. At least the young lady, if never a notable singer, has capacity to be much superior to the ordinary.

Expressions of the Press of the State
Concerning Its Results.

[San Francisco Examiner.]

The action of the Auti-Chinese Convention at Sacramento has been so full and complete, and has covered so entirely the issue which more than any other interests the people of this coast, that we may fairly consider the work of revolution boldly faunched. It now remains for the people to carry it through to a successful conclusion. The methods and details of the plan are clearly set out in the proceedings of the Convention, and it is happily, in all respects, in harmony with public opinion. For months beyootting has been discussed in all its details. Its application to the Chinese issue has been tested and approved, and perhaps with a unantimity without example in social revolutions the public agree that it is the one thing which is destined to lift the Chinese issue has been tested and approved, and perhaps with a unantimity without example in social revolutions the public agree that it is the one thing which is destined to lift the Chinese issue has been forces it employs contain all the elements of revolution. They speciful issue. It is peaceable, irresistible and effective. The forces it employs contain all the elements of revolution, They peaceful. In fact it is the only agency which, under the peculiar conditions of the Chinese question, was left to us. Force was not to be thought of . Yet this is a far more effective weapon than force. [Grass Valley Union.]

The Sacramento Anti-Chinese Convention—was not consistent with the boycotting chinese, and yet indorsed the anti-Chinese follows and the proposed Congressional measures should have been condemned. [Los Angeles Express.]

The only effectual remedy is that adopted by the Convention—the boycott. There is, of course, opposition to this method, just as there would be to any effectual means of getting rid of the Chinese, but no valid argument can be offered against the boycott, ** **P II anyone knows a better way he should impart his wisdom to the public, instead of ca Concerning Its Results.

whales, Illinois, J. Wiseman, Omaha; J. White Canadas, W. Matereband, Nebraska; Dr. J. P. Young, Sait Lake; A. D. Horx, Oregon.

The stand taken by the State Convention definitely fixes boycotting as the final plan of action in all places and all cases where it may become actually necessary. Everybody understands that now. All action that may be taken anywhere will have that in mind. The only alternative of boycotting is the discharge of Chinese from employment. If, however, this withdrawal of countenance and patronage from Chinase can be effected by milder means, this is distinctly within the spirit of the Sacramento platform, and commends itself to every reasonable and sensible man in the State.

[The Oakland Times.]

The boycott seems to be the only effective measure possible. While it is not American, the fact that we are not dealing with American subjects will justify us in borrowing a method from any country that will meet the emergency. * * We must impress upon the labor leagues, however, the absolute necessity of furnishing the white labor required to supplant the Chinamen, that we may not have a famine in that direction. Let the feast come all at once, and all be prepared to partake.

[Dakland Tribune.]

The only portion of the platform which called forth opposition was that indorsing the boycotting system, which, after discussion, was adopted, only a few voting in the negative. This resolution recommends a resort to boycotting at the very earliest moment, of any person employing Chinamen, of any person employing Chinamen, directly or indirectly, or who purchase the product of Chinese alsor. The process should be: First, let the products be brought under the ban. Second, let every league organize a labor bureau for the furnishing of competent help to those who are now for the furnishing of competent help to those who are now for the furnishing of competent help to those who are now for the furnishing of competent help to those who are now for the furnishing of competent help to those who are now for th under the ban. Second, let every league day, ganize a labor bureau for the furnishing of competent help to those who are now forced to employ Chinese labor; and, if necessary, draw upon the East for help to furnish families, fruit-growers and agri-

[Contra Costa Gazette.]

The resolutions formulated by the Anti-

Chinese Convention at Sacramento are to be commended, with a single exception, and that exception is a vital one. We refet to the clause favoring an immediate boycott of all men who employ Chinese. Had the body of the Convention been sufficiently conservative to determine to await the result of one or all of the proposed measures of relief that are now pending in Congress before introducing the obnoxious boycott system in America, such action would have met with the approval of every citizen of California, irrespective of party, business or personal interests. But when it decided to boycott first and to await the action of Congress as a secondary matter, it went to an extreme which is liable to bring about results that every sensible member of the Convention, though temporarily carried away by his enthusiasm, upon sober second thought will certainly deplore.

[San Jose Mercury.]

Under the title of "The Sacramento Failure," the San Jose Mercury says: The people of California have no great reason to be elated with the results, nor to be proud of the methods pursued by the Anti-Chinese Convention in Sacramento. It has done nothing to emphasize public sentiment on the Chinese question, but it did things that would tend to lessen the hold we were beginning to obtain in Congress and among the voters of the Eastern States. Its proceedings were so manifestly infused with personal and political ambitions, its debates conducted in so disorderly and undignified a manner, and its conclusions were so lame and impotent as to be more injurious than beneficial to the interests it assumed to champion.

[San Jose Herald.]

The action of the combined Anti-Chinese Conventions at Sacramento in passing the boycotting resolution is remarkably significant. It was the supreme act of the body. These two sets of men, coming from two distinct sources and representation. two distinct sources and representing all classes and every industry in all the counties of the State, cannot be regarded as misrepresenting the prevailing sentiment of the State on the boycotting question. It is still more significant that very few speeches were made against the resolution and that the vote on its adoption was practically the vote on its adoption was practically
